JIM CORBETT IS HUNGRY.

Yearns for a Battle With Jeffries.

*Thinks He Can Punish
the Big Fellow.*

*All-Americans Whitewashed at Philadelphia—Horse Walks
In at Lexington.*

*BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES:
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 8.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Jim Corbett is already in New York to fight for the title of champion of the world. Yesterday, Harry Corbett received a letter from his brother which he said:*

"There is only one thing I desire in this life, and that is fight with Jeffries. I am aware of the fact, and after considering the mill I put up against him in New York, and judging
the battle he engaged in with Pittston, I am convinced that the champion is heavier than I was."

"If he is I can whip the big relative. I am aware of the fact, and after considering the mill I put up
against him in New York, and judging
the battle he engaged in with Pitts-
ton, I am convinced that the champion
is heavier than I was."

"I will all over the ring without danger of getting a return. Now I will you call on Delaney and ask us what you can do to arrange a contest."

"Corbett has all along expressed a desire to fight Jeffries for the heavyweight title, seeing in this match the only opportunity for a big money-making fight. Harry Corbett thinks the contest cannot be arranged until next May, owing to the unusual engagements he now has,

so that he can determine his future course without interference with the fight.

HERRERA-ATELL MILL
TEN MEN TRAINING HARD.
BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.J.

OAKLAND, Oct. 8.—Unusual interest has been taken in the Herrera-Ateill Mill team trials which were held on the Hill last Saturday. The men are doing hard training at their respective quarters, and it will be best feather-weight event pulled off for some time. Already a large number of spectators have come to see the trials, and the affair is attracting widespread interest all over the city. The team has greatly improved its trip East, and is prepared to struggle in its career.

LEXINGTON (Ky.), Oct. 8.—The unusually hot weather which is now over the country has been a hindrance to the horse walking in the heat of the Future. The horses have been running in the Kentucky Derby meeting today, when after an even-eighth of a mile, Hudson's horse was taken to the polo pole and securely tied face to face. At a given signal they were strung up.

BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES:

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 8.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) "Now just let me have a license; I'm 72 years old, and she is

49. The rest of it is our business."

A couple stood before Morris Salmon-son, marriage license clerk, today. The name was John Birmingham, and his name was San Francisco. "She is Frances

A. Seymour, and 49 years old; but let's hurry with that paper," the man said.

The unusual sight of two fashionably dressed strangers applying for a license to wed aroused the cleric's curiosity, but he was wondering if the affair was all their own, and where and when they were to be married was something they would not understand.

They are wealthy Californians, and that one of them has recently been divorced," said Clerk Sal-monson, toning down the remark.

"According to California law, they can't be married unless they are of different religions."

The man is a retired capitalist.

Both bore evidence of refinement, and were as happy as any young couple I ever saw."

HOW THE TIMES TREATS LABOR.

THE LOS ANGELES TIMES regularly pays to its skilled, reliable and acceptable workmen wages that average from $3.75 to $4.50 per day for time work, and from $4 to $5.50 per day for piece work. These rates are higher than those paid by any competing newspaper; and another advance has recently been agreed upon. The Times pays larger sums weekly, monthly and yearly for labor than any journal in all the Southwest. Its cash disbursements on this account between August, 1899, and the end of September, 1902, aggregated $1,000,000.00, and its annual expenditures for labor of all classes, both skilled and unskilled, now average more than $175,000 per year. There never has been any attempt, in any quarter, to deny these specific and telling facts, and the proprietors challenge such denial if made. Not for years has THE TIMES had any trouble with its workmen, who are independent of unions, loyal to their employers and themselves, well satisfied and prosperous. The Times controls its own business in its own way, subject only to the laws of the land; and no interference with that control can be lawfully or justly made. The result of its fixed policy has proven highly beneficial to all concerned, and the justness and correctness of its course have for years past received public approval in most marked and conspicuous ways, the circulation and advertising patronage of the paper steadily and largely outstripping that of all local rivals.

THE TIMES-MIRROR COMPANY.

Since no attempt whatever has ever been made in any quarter to refute, or even dispute, the accuracy of the foregoing authoritative statements, our deafened malcontents are estopped; and the public is amply warranted in giving no credence to contemporary hostile assaillants upon THE TIMES management in the matter of its relations to its workmen, or vice versa. Falsehood must yield to truth.

CIRCULATION.

The average daily circulation of THE TIMES, Sundays included, for August, 1902, was 31,777 copies, being an average daily gain over August, 1901, of 4978 copies.

The average net daily circulation (Sundays included) of THE TIMES for the eight months from January 1, 1902, to August 31, 1902, inclusive, was 30,941 copies.

The average circulation of the SUNDAY TIMES (including the Magazine) for every Sunday during the eight months ending August 31, 1902, was 45,093 copies.

The average daily circulation by years since 1895, together with the increase from time to time, is shown above under the sub-head of "Circulation."

BUSINESS.

The exchanges of the Los Angeles clearinghouse yesterday were $1,067,544.64, as compared with $650,541.92 for the corresponding period of last year.

There was fair trade in grain, with good prices, at Chicago. Stocks at New York showed a sharp recovery. Union Pacific was strong to the last, but other shares closed a little below the best figure.

CHARTER AMENDMENT NO. 2.

The proposed charter amendment known as number two, which is to be voted upon at the municipal election, December 1, is in most respects a well-defined instrument for regulating the conduct of the city waterworks system. There is little objection to it, excepting to that portion which relates to the payment of the principal and interest of the water bonds. That part of the amendment, as the Times has heretofore pointed out, is open to objection because of its failure to provide for the payment of these obligations by general tax; allowing the Council, instead, to levy on the water-revenue fund for that purpose.

This portion of the proposed amendment, after providing for the creation of a water revenue fund from the moneys received from the sale of water (such fund to be kept separate and apart from other moneys of the city) provides further that "the City Council, at the time of fixing the general tax levy, may, in its discretion, by ordinance, apportion and set apart, out of the moneys then in said water revenue fund, an amount sufficient to meet all sums coming due for interest or principal, or for interest and principal, upon all outstanding waterworks bonds, before the time for fixing the next general tax levy; and the City Treasurer shall use the money so apportioned to make such payment, and for no other purpose; and if there shall be a surplus remaining, the same shall forthwith be retransferred into said water revenue fund."

Further on, the proposed amendment provides "that said board may, in its discretion, so fix the water rates as to produce a revenue sufficient only for the purpose of defraying the necessary expenses of conducting the water department, of operating the waterworks, and of making all current and ordinary extensions, betterments and renewals, and for no other purpose."

In regard to these two provisions, it is to be said that the first is at least of questionable constitutionality.

The Times has shown by quotation from the State Statute (Article XI, section 18,) in a previous article, that in creating bonded indebtedness cities are required to make fixed provisions, by annual (general) tax, for the payment of both principal and interest on such indebtedness.

If the Council were to be permitted to levy upon the water revenue fund for this purpose, would not the above requirement of the State's fundamental law be violated? The water revenue fund, to be created if the amendment be carried, will be derived from a special tax to be paid for water sold by the city to consumers, which is not properly a tax at all, but is certainly not an "annual tax" within the meaning of the constitutional provision. Is not this contrary, both in letter and in spirit, to the constitutional requirement?

Again, the second provision, empowering the Board of Water Commissioners to fix the water rates so as to reduce the revenue to a point barely sufficient for the maintenance of the water department, seems to make possible, if not probable, an unpleasant mix-up between the Council and the Board of Water Commissioners. The latter body would not be able to estimate, to an exact certainty, the expenses of the water department. Some money would always be on hand in the water revenue fund, as the revenues could not be so nicely adjusted as exactly to meet the needs of the department. This money would be subject to seizure by the Council for the payment of principal and interest of the water bonds, although it might be needed for extensions and betterments planned for the near future.

In brief, the proposed amendment, as it stands, may lead to more or less confusion, if made a part of the charter, while its conformity to constitutional requirements is at least questionable. This is to be regretted, for the amendment, as before stated, is to be commended as to most of its provisions. The simpler and the more satisfactory way would have been to provide for the payment of the water bonds, principal and interest, by a fixed annual tax of definite amount, as plainly contemplated by the State Constitution.

ROB OLD MAN OF EARNINGS.

Brutal Action of the Bakers' Union.

Drive James From His Employment.

Then Refuse to Let Him Join the Union or Get Work.

One of the most damnable and pitiful instances of labor union tyranny in the history of Los Angeles came to light yesterday. The Bakers' Union forced the Meek Baking Company to "fire" William James from his job because he did not belong to the union; and then when the old man applied for admission to the sacred precincts of the union, they voted not to let him in on account of his age.

This was equivalent to saying that a man past 65 years old shall not have a chance to earn a living in this free country.

It was for this sort of thing that a Los Angeles clergymen asked his congregation to give an "offering" a few Sundays ago, but did not get a very liberal response.

The Bakers' Union of Los Angeles, in convention assembled, ruminated, attempted to think, and then decreed that poor, old William James should not work for the Meek Baking Company.

The Meek Baking Company was willing to retain William James, despite his 65 years, and the old man was willing to work; he even, when attacked, agreed to pay the initiation fee to the Bakers' Union if so be backshoeshoe must be paid to keep alive in a free country.

But the Bakers' Union considered that an old man could not now affect its position much, and that a young master could do more for them than an old conservative; so James's knell was rung.

The princely stipend that excited the envy of the experts in the manufacture of fine breads was withdrawn.

William James came to Los Angeles in 1894. He had a little money, saved by arduous labor in the mines of Wales, and he began paying for a house and work in the city of his adoption, but soon in the course of time became the man within a few months of the allotted three score and ten, and eighteen months ago William James applied at headquarters of the Meek Baking Company for work. He was given work, breaking eggs and washing dishes, for $1.50 a week, and he took it. Subsequently Mr. Meek paid the old man $7; it was little, but the work was worth it; more than paid the old man's taxes and his living, and the sixty-nine-year-old man who has worked since he was 5 years old, has given his life to work he was self-supporting still.

But the Bakers' Union wanted the old man's 57-and-a-half years of service, so served on the foreman of the works that William James was not a union man, and he must be discharged. The foreman conferred with the old man, and, then, William James was given one week's "notice." He went to the headquarters of the union and demonstrated in his defense, and they promised to bring the matter up at the next meeting of the organization. The matter was brought up, but it was promptly shut down, and the understanding that William James was "too old to be a member of the union."

Mr. Meek, however, told William James he was sorry that he could no longer employ him, and that the union's action was "a dirty shame," but he could not ignore the labor house.

William James was working for the Meek Baking Company before the Bakers' Union was organized in Los Angeles, and he had been given every opportunity to join the organization. He was liked by his employers and his neighbors, and he had no other man's legitimate place to go, helping to support a family of four; he was putting in his time to pay the doctor's bill, his wife's bill, and the bills of any of his men who tore from him his slender living.

His voice broke and he cried as he told his story to a Times reporter in his little cottage at No. 285 East Eighth street yesterday afternoon.

Every word of the story is confirmed by the Meek Baking Company, and his neighbors vouch for the old man's industry and uprightness.

He said that about a year ago two non-union bakers in the city were shot. That was another way of doing it.

THE BIGGEST UNION.

Interesting Session of the Los Angeles Federation of Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

Not one of the least interesting statements brought out at the meeting of the Los Angeles Federation of the W.C.T.U., held yesterday in Vincent Methodist Episcopal Church, was that Los Angeles Union, with nearly four hundred members, is the largest union in the world. The fact didn't make any great show, but it was simply mentioned in an off-hand way.

Reports from all unions were of a most encouraging character, and indicate enthusiasm and endeavor on the part of the membership.

Among the ladies from a distance who were present yesterday was Mrs. Rathbone of Salt Lake, who for many years has been in charge of the penitentiary work in Utah.

Rev. George A. Hough, the new pastor of Vincent Church, made an address on the subject of temperance and interest and support of himself and wife in behalf of the W.C.T.U. work.

Mrs. L. W. Burt addressed the federation concerning the effects of alcohol upon the system.

Mrs. E. C. Howard of Pasadena read a paper on "Hygienic Care." She said that a number of stimulants were created improperly, cooked foods, and that starch foods caused most deaths of children under 5 years.

Mrs. C. H. Fletcher, who is in her paper "Milestones of Mothers," advocated making homes a happier place, consult the children more concerning things pertaining to the home, blame and praise more, and be more demonstrative of affection toward the children.

Great Chinese Festival Closes in Burst of Barbaric Splendor.

CHINESE DRAGON
IN THE PARADE.

HERE THERE WERE A FEW PEOPLE IN CHINATOWN.

across the Plaza into Chinatown, and glancing with its rolling glass eyes at the gentle Christian inscription across its adobe front, until the keeper beat its head round again with mock blows; and it wriggled into the depths of its own realms to do deference to fire-crackers.

Before the parade started, the white paper horse that the almond-eyed paper horse had stolidly held in leash for four days in the temporary temple, paddied to pack supplies along the Death Trail for the spirits, was started on his way in a pyre of flames, while the living took refuge under the crackling lashes of smoke. The dragon watched him go. Firecrackers signaled the departure.

A throng of white visitors witnessed the closing of the streets of Chinatown, and the streets of Chinatown were packed from wall to wall. The parades suffered a little inconvenience from the crowd, police being unable to disperse any gatherings.

All day a curious crowd of Chinese studied the red posters on the big bill-board in front of the house of the contributions to the festival, and what they gave, are displayed.

TONGUE ITS GROTESQUE HEAD AND THE CHINESE DRAGON TWICE AROUND THE PLAZA.

It was written through the narrow streets of Chinatown yesterday afternoon, bowing thrice with dangerous deference before the joint house of each Chinese society, in response to the noisy salutation of thousands of fire-crackers launched from the balconies.

It was the last day of the festival, furnishing a sight of such picturesqueness and barbaric splendor as can be witnessed in no city outside of the Orient save in Los Angeles, for there is no such dragon beyond the boundaries of the celestial empire.

The name of the dragon is the same as the Chinese dragon, the same as the Chinese dragon.

William James came to Los Angeles with the addition of five San Franciscans priests, immediately preceding the dragon, clad in flowing robes of black and red, with gold-embroidered backs, and a file of youngsters in big straw hats and gay pantaloons.

Father James was mixed, as well as sadly lacking, in the jumbled region of the Plaza. The fearsome dragon, snaking out of heathen ages, with its mouth open, its tail coiled, lunged, as chance would have it, toward the little mother of all Christ's churches here, that looks so much like a dragon beyond the boundaries of the celestial empire.

SWAY OF SMALE MUCH EXTENDED.

IN A meeting as devoid of excitement as an afternoon tea party, and apparently as well prepared, a Socialist assembly yesterday there were great developments in the controversy that has shivered the timbers of the First Baptist Church. Measures of the highest importance, and behind which lie long and interesting stories, were taken up last night, one after another, and decided with little discussion and no opposition.

ASSISTANT RESIGNS.

Perhaps the most important development in the fight that has been waged against Pastor Joseph Smale was the resignation of his assistant, Rev. W. C. Cloworth, last night. To take effect immediately. Second in importance was the unanimous endorsement of a plan for more completely establishing the authority and power of the pastor over all departments of the church constitution. In addition G. E. Gutwitz, a prominent member of the "opposition," resigned from the board of trustees. Mrs. Anna Schumann, a feminine critic of the pastor, came before the congregation and confessed that the "team" was in her own eye.

Despite the fact that there was no advance notice of the important nature of the business to come before the meeting, which followed the regular mid-week prayer service, there was a large attendance, the pastor's opponents well represented. The assembly sat down to a main motion almost absolute silence, and there were no dissenting votes on any measure of the programme.

PASTOR TAKES PART.

Mr. Cloworth was present, but Mr. Smale took an active part in the proceedings. The pastor was adopted by letter addressed to the church, and it was read to the congregation. Mr. Cloworth spoke very kindly and feelingly of the church, but made absolutely no reference to Mr. Smale. The only sentence which he uttered, such as it was, on the causes back of the separation reads:

"For two months things have been shaping themselves in such a way that I am compelled to speak."

Speaking of the decision of his assistant to quit the work at the First Church, Mr. Smale commended the church, and work of Mr. Cloworth very highly, and expressed his feelings of sorrow at the severing of relations more stated than he believed. Mr. Cloworth ought to have a pastorate.

RUBBING IT IN?

In securing the revision of the constitution to extend his control of the church affairs, the pastor is securing a sweet revenge and "rubbing it in" very deep in his opposing laymen. The objectionable features most strongly urged against his work are the ones made stronger by the revision. The super-trouble over what was claimed to be undue interference with the Sunday-school by the pastor. The amendment to extend his church's jurisdiction and control over all of the branch organizations, which include the Sunday-school and Young People's Society. The Tuesday afternoon services, which were hitherto to be held under the direction of others, is placed absolutely under the control of the pastor, and he will either administer the services or name the person who does.

The recommendation of the pastor that $100 be raised by October 15 for the building of a new church, which follows the regular mid-week prayer service, was then a large attendance, the pastor's opponents well represented. The assembly sat down to a main motion almost absolute silence, and there were no dissenting votes on any measure of the programme.

THE OIL INDUSTRY.

COMBINE STOCKHOLDERS ARE SURPRISING.

DON'T LIKE TO RATIFY SALE WITH OUT KNOWING WHY.

Court May Be Asked to Take a Hand in Matter—Increasing Capacity of California Refinery at Summerville—Union Ships Oil to Hawaii.

Discord is reported to have entered the ranks of the Kern combine since the request sent out this week, for signatures of stockholders ratifying the deeds pending when the Associated Oil Company was formed.

The failure of the combine to give a reasonable explanation for this request has awakened suspicion in certain quarters and there is likelihood that the writer will be asked in the event that the stockholders of the Associated are necessary to the consummation of any project now in view. It is stated that a number of stockholders in companies that are not members of the combine will not attach their signatures to ratification papers unless directed to do so by the court.

The fact that the signatures have been asked for indicates that it is advisable. Corporation of the magnitude of the Kern combine will not manage to do without unnecessary acts of their stockholders.

A Kern combine official states that an independent operator not friendly to the Associated company said yesterday that the legal question involved would be found to be the point of contention.

"The law provides," said he, "that the sale of real estate belonging to a corporation can only be made with two-thirds of the stockholders' their assent being given in writing. But it is implied that any such sale must be for the benefit of the oil and real estate trade, in which case the tract was exchanged for another, would not be held to be provided for in the statement. The Kern combine stockholders could just demand that the proceeding be set aside, rightfully asserting that he was entitled to the payment for his interest in legal terms.

SUMMERLAND CHANGES.

When improvements now under way at the plant of the California Liquid Asphalt Company in the Summerland field have been completed the plant will have a capacity of about two thousand barrels of oil a day, & new 50-barrel still is now being set up.

The Union Oil Company has just let a contract for five new wells to be drilled at the foot of Ortega Hill. This company now has a number of good producers in that corner of the field.

OIL FROM HAWAII.

When the tank bottoms left San Francisco for Kahului, Hawaiian Islands this week it carried 507,915 gallons of California crude oil, in bulk, value $10,500.

The Union, in building up a large trade among the sugar growers of the islands and has already shipped considerable fuel oil. Large tanks are being established at prominent points.

INDIAN-LAND DEAL IS ABOUT CLOSED.

PALA VALLEY TRACT COSTS FORTY EIGHT THOUSAND DOLLARS.

Twenty-two Thousand to Be Used in Purchasing Other Lands in San Diego County—Other Side of Odd Damage Suit.

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.

SAN DIEGO, Oct. 8.—Frank A. Salmon, the Pala merchant, who engineered the deal for the home for the Indians, reported that the transaction is now closed.

"For two months things have been shaping themselves in such a way that I am compelled to seek a solution."

Speaking of the decision of his assistant to quit the work at the First Church, Mr. Smale commended the church, and work of Mr. Cloworth very highly, and expressed his feelings of sorrow at the severing of relations more stated than he believed. Mr. Cloworth ought to have a pastorate.

RUBBING IT IN?

In securing the revision of the constitution to extend his control of the church affairs, the pastor is securing a sweet revenge and "rubbing it in" very deep in his opposing laymen. The objectionable features most strongly urged against his work are the ones made stronger by the revision. The super-trouble over what was claimed to be undue interference with the Sunday-school by the pastor. The amendment to extend his church's jurisdiction and control over all of the branch organizations, which include the Sunday-school and Young People's Society. The Tuesday afternoon services, which were hitherto to be held under the direction of others, is placed absolutely under the control of the pastor, and he will either administer the services or name the person who does.

The recommendation of the pastor that $100 be raised by October 15 for the building of a new church, which follows the regular mid-week prayer service, was then a large attendance, the pastor's opponents well represented. The assembly sat down to a main motion almost absolute silence, and there were no dissenting votes on any measure of the programme.

PASTOR TAKES PART.

Mr. Cloworth was present, but Mr. Smale took an active part in the proceedings. The pastor was adopted by letter addressed to the church, and it was read to the congregation. Mr. Cloworth spoke very kindly and feelingly of the church, but made absolutely no reference to Mr. Smale. The only sentence which he uttered, such as it was, on the causes back of the separation reads:

Los Angeles Daily Times. II

Los Angeles County: Its Cities, Towns, Hamlets and Suburban Places.

(NEWS REPORTS FROM TIMES CORRESPONDENTS.)

DEED OF BLOODINESS
IS BURIO CANYON.YOUNG MILLIONAIRE TREADWELL ENDS HIS LIFE.

Two attempts to kill his young wife, who escapes with terrible wounds—tragic termination of short beloved life.

PASADENA, Oct. 8.—F. Treadwell, son of the late Senator J. P. Treadwell, and superintendent of the world-famed Treadwell estate, committed suicide in Los Angeles yesterday after making a strenuous attempt upon the life of his beautiful young wife. He is supposed to have been insane as the result of drinking. Mrs. Treadwell will live. Her wounds consist of two cuts on the forehead and one on the left arm. A bullet, but with the revolver unused, was found near her bed at 10th and Euclid avenue, with her dead son. Treadwell was 27 years old, and his wife about the same age, or a bit younger.

HIGH SCHOOL WANTED.

The people of South Pasadena will hold a meeting this evening at their public school building to discuss plans for the general improvement of schools there. The sentiment generally is in favor of purchasing the balance of the land owned by the city, and thus providing ample room for High School building. Many are in favor of voting bonds for building the new school, and the wife about the same age, or a bit younger.

The tragedy is the old story of the educated son of wealth. The lad had taken his own life two weeks ago in San Francisco and took apartment there. They were very much to themselves, and their actions, or those of husband, attracted the attention of the house. A short time ago they moved to the business section. During the past day or two they kept their rooms closely, Treadwell having his meals brought to him on Tuesday night he was noticed on the porch, and seemed to be in most disconsolate frame of mind. It was reported that jealousy was the cause.

Tuesday morning they took the car for Rubio Canyon, and the known of them was when Mrs. Treadwell was seen by passengers on Long Beach Avenue running along the railroad tracks near her face. Among the passengers was Prof. Larkin, who has a big telescope on the train. He and his companions took Treadwell into the hotel in the car and helped her wash her hair. The presumption is that she had been ill, but it was known immediately that her husband had beaten her and she feared that he had killed her. He was stone dead found, and the body was removed to the undertaking parlor of Van Nuya's.

It will be held this morning at 10

Mrs. Treadwell positively had been beaten from Raymond south to Monterey road and the right-way has been secured through the O'Neil property, that of the widow of her husband, Absalom.

The Public Library will be open for the loaning of books to all public school children whether residents or not. The trustees show an ever-increasing attendance.

The All-Pasadena football team will have a game Saturday at Touhy Park. Games are being arranged for with the Perris Indians, S.C. and Pomona.

Quinton, who has been at the hospital for three weeks, has returned to his home on Columbia street, entirely recovered from his illness.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Daniels and their two sons have arrived from Chicago and have taken apartments at the Evanston Inn.
